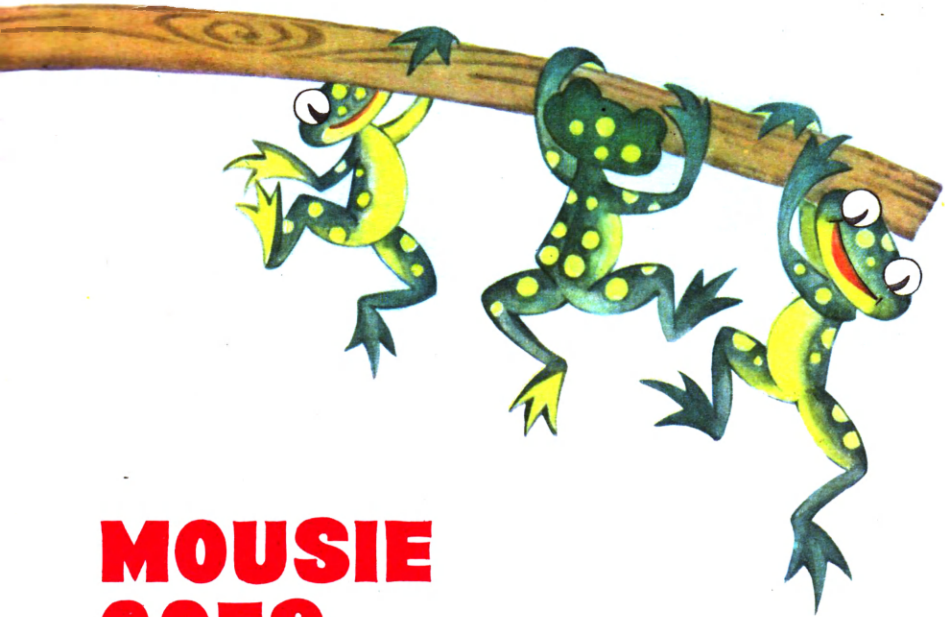
MOUSIE GOES FOR WATER



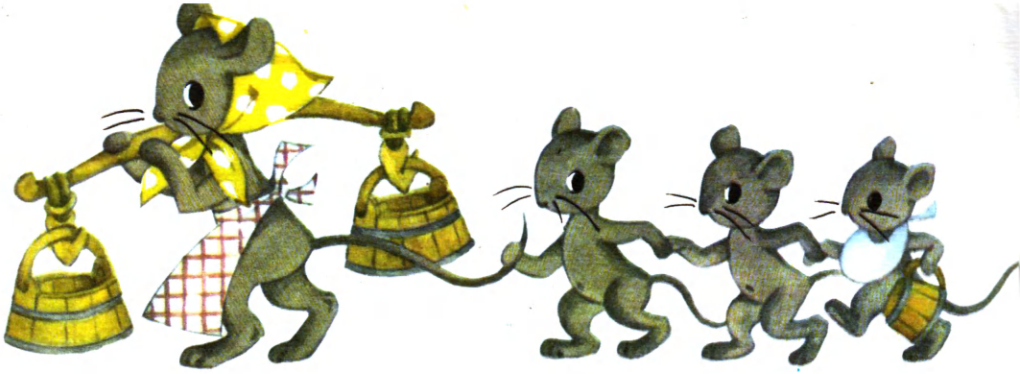
MOUSIE GOES FOR WATER

Lithuanian Rhymes

Illustrated by Tatyana Balčiunenė

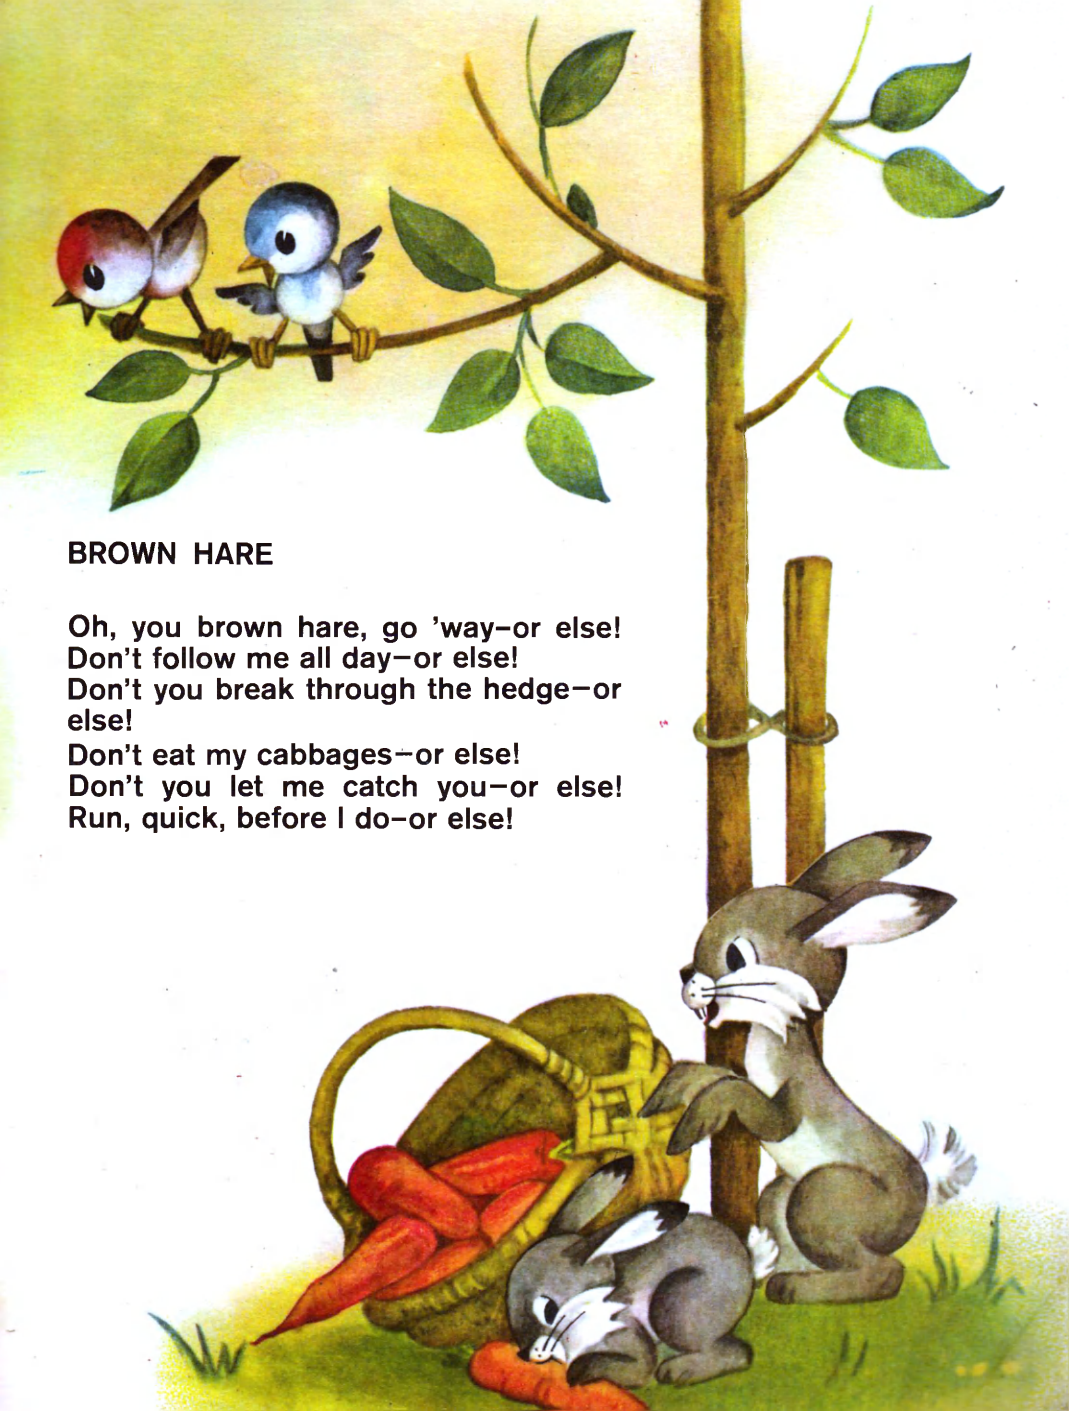
Translated by Fainna Solasko

Progress Publishers
Moscow



MOUSIE GOES FOR WATER

Wash the buckwheat and mash it well,
We've sent Mousie out to the well.
She went across a bridge,
Across a sandy ridge,
Back and forth she scurried,
Mousie was so worried,
"Oh, dear, I'm lost! The well is gone!"
But it was by the barn!

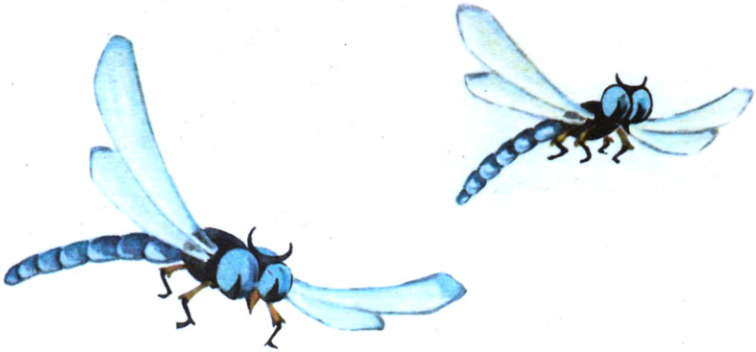


BROWN HARE

Oh, you brown hare, go 'way–or else!
Don't follow me all day–or else!
Don't you break through the hedge–or else!
Don't eat my cabbages–or else!
Don't you let me catch you–or else!
Run, quick, before I do–or else!

MOO-MOO!

Moo-moo, my horns are strong,
Moo-moo, my tail is long,
Moo-moo, I weigh a ton,
Moo-moo, you'd better run,
Moo-moo, out of my yard,
Moo-moo, I'll butt you hard!



WOODCOCK BUILT A HUT

Woodcock, woodcock, hippity-hop,
On the bright green meadow.
Swing your axe, don't be slow,
Chop-chop-chop! Chop-chop-chop!

Woodcock built a little hut
On a hill, on a hill,
There he brought his own true l
Dressed in gay flowers and frills.

МЫШКУ ПО ВОДУ ПОСЛАЛИ

Литовские народные песенки

На английском языке

First Printing 1971

Second printing 1974

Third printing 1982

Printed in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics

М 70801-284 / 016(01)-81 118-82

4803010000